ABOUT THE LODGE & SUITES

An architectural masterpiece made from giant Eastern Spruce logs featuring full scribe notch and dovetail joinery, chiseled granite and sandstone, Trout Point's Main Lodge celebrates the Great Camps erected along the U.S. & Canadian Eastern Seaboard in the early 20th century. This three-story structure houses guest facilities, the Great Room, mezzanine library, dining rooms, kitchen, two bars, and recreational facilities on the banks of two wilderness rivers. Replete with mica and Tiffany lamps, oriental rugs, handmade log & twig furniture, and extensive indoor and outdoor public areas, Trout Point is the ideal nature retreat. All spacious guest rooms in the Great Lodge feature log walls & beam ceilings and full amenities. Many have hand-cut stone fireplaces, wood burning stoves, porches or patios.

A short walk away from the Main Lodge, Beaver Hall is located at the bend of the Tusket River and has a grand communal area with soaring cathedral ceilings and massive stone fireplace. All rooms at Beaver Hall have porches or patios.

All suites at Trout Point Lodge are distinctly individual, tastefully appointed, and feature L'Occitane en Provence amenities. All suites have in-room safes.

GETTING HERE

Fly and Drive

Halifax International Airport lies about 3 hours north of the lodge and has all major rental car agencies. For the current moment, we recommend taking the route using Hwy. 101 rather than the South Shore route using Hwy 103 due to the deteriorated condition of Hwy 203 between Shelburne and Trout Point. If already travelling the South Shore, Trout Point is about 45 minutes from the Shelburne/Ohio exit off of Highway 103, the route south from Halifax. Take the road towards the Ohios.

Ferry and Drive

Daily high-speed ferry service (The Cat) from Portland, Maine to Yarmouth International Ferry Terminal. Trout Point Lodge is about 45 mins drive from the Ferry Terminal.

Bay Ferries provide daily ferry service between St. John, New Brunswick and Digby, Nova Scotia. Digby is about an hour's drive from the resort.
